

In an effort to keep Central Coast residents up-to-date on my work in Washington, I have provided a list of important issues under the About the Issues drop-down menu to the left. Information included in those links will help keep you informed on the topics important to you. Don't see an issue that's important to you?

Let me know.

I believe communication is essential to good government.